Welcome

to Contractors & Developers Bonding

Contractors & Developers Bonding is a surety bond only brokerage company specializing in providing bonds to contractors in the public & private sectors. Our specialization in surety puts us ahead of our competitors and we currently enjoy being the largest independently owned, surety only brokerage company in the western states.

We offer over 100 years of combined surety bond underwriting and brokerage expertise. Our management team has many years of experience as underwriters with small and very large contractors providing a thorough knowledge of all surety related products and credibility among underwriters. We have surety markets to handle the smallest of bonds to the largest of any bond required.

The surety bond business centers on relationships. We have the right connections and therefore you will have the right connections.

Our focus is on your current and future bond capacity needs. We are your link to the right surety bond company to handle your business growth goals!

From Our Clients...

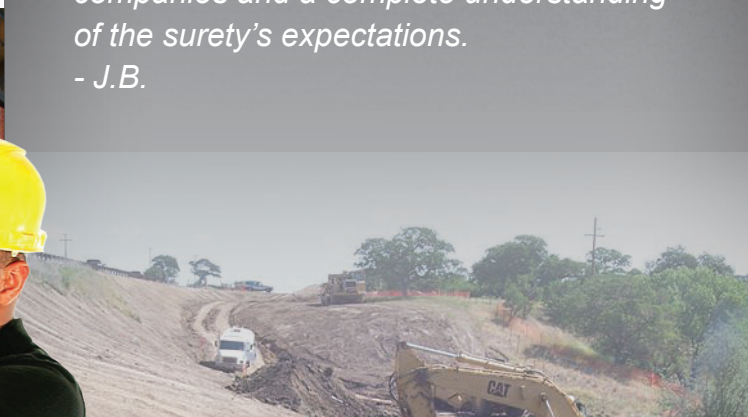

client recommendations on request

Our business partnership began 15 years ago and is still strong. The professionalism and knowledge displayed by C & D Bonding, our long term surety partners, has assisted in the growth of our company.
- S.S.

Through Phil Vega and his agency, C & D Bonding, my company went from a bond capacity just over 1 million to 140 million in under two years. C & D made a difficult decision of switching bonding companies easy.
- J.P.

I believe it's the many years of knowledge and experience of the C & D Bonding staff that makes the difference in the success of our company. They are customer service oriented and shine when the pressure is on.
- A.O.

We were impressed with Phil's previous experience as a Bond Underwriter which gives him more influence with bond companies and a complete understanding of the surety's expectations.
- J.B.

We EXCEL at Relationships

We can assist in recommending a CPA, banker, attorney as well as software which will help your company maximize it's bond credit. We help the beginner as well as the sophisticated bond user maximise their bond capacity.
